

DAY 4

Near the Nulhegan Photograph by Ron Wild

Common Ground

So softly nuthatch took my hand
Found its way to my offer
Looked me in the eye as if to say “you don’t look like a tree, I’m not afraid”

Over and over and over
So softly each time
A nuthatch took my hand

Me different from them
Surrounded by trees, we found common ground to feed each other
