Survivors of Trauma - working with trauma among refugees, asylum seekers and immigrant groups

Uncomfortable? Unsure what to do? What to say? Feel overwhelmed?
This workshop is geared to helping us deal with some of the hard situations we face in working with new neighbors in our community.

- Impact of torture and trauma on refugees and asylum seekers
- Recognizing behaviors, signs and symptoms
- Vicarious trauma
- Empathy combined with self-care
- Cultural contexts
- Tools for the challenges we face, through case studies

Presented by Karen Fondacaro, Ph.D., Licensed Clinical Psychologist
Director, Connecting Cultures
